(30 Marks)

Mahak Singh joined Syndicate Bank, Meerut branch as a clerk after obtaining the post-graduate degree in Chemistry from Delhi University in 1986. He did his work with due diligence and was generally rated as a hard-working, ambitious young man. He obtained the professional qualification, CAIIB, in 1992. Therefore, he had applied for the officers' post under the promotion quota. He could not get the promotion as his scores in the written test were low. Meanwhile, he is transferred to the Delhi University, Campus branch, Delhi. His attempts to scale the career ladder, did not succeed and after several frustrating trails, he consciously decided to join the ranks of the union as an active member. He became the president of the local branch of Bank Employees' Union in 1995. Through his interpersonal skills, he moved closer to most employees in the bank and is able to put out the fires between people quickly. Of late, he is considered a touch union activist to bargain with and management has developed a kind of negative attitude towards his career moves. In 1996, when the opportunity came, he was not considered for promotion as his interview scores, these times were found to be not satisfactory ! The branch managers' confidential report about his union activities, it is rumoured, is said to be the major obstacle to his promotion. Meanwhile, Mahak Singh started a business of dealership in automobiles using a dummy name. He has also succeeded, to a large extent, in diverting the deposits of nearby business community to other banks. Based on the recommendations of the new branch manager, management has decided to promote Mahak Singh to the office cadre in 1999. Mahak Singh received the appointment order for the officer's post from the head office recently. The colleagues, along with the Branch Manager planned an evening tea party, congratulating his achievement. To their surprise, Mahak Singh expressed his unwillingness to accept the offer and refused the promotion straight away, citing medical reasons.

Answer the following questions :--

- (i) Comment on the promotion policy of the bank, using inputs from the above case.
- (ii) Do you think management's action of selecting Mahak Singh as an officer after 13 years of service is in the right direction ? Why and why not ?
- (iii) Why did Mahak Singh refuse promotion ?
- (iv) What would you have done if you had been Mahak Singh?
